BOMBINERO PORTER IS BUSY

Songs and Shad and the Sound of Clinking Glasses Form the Happy Combination at Marshall Hall, Every One Rollicks and No One Remembers to Be Diguified.

Oh, am I the boss, or am I the fool? Am I the governor general or a hobo? I'd like to know who's the bess of this show? Is it me or Emilio Agminaldo?

Even as they used to sing it in the cafes of Manila or about the campfires in the hill country of Luzon, Panay, and Mindanao, some sixty loyal sons of the Carabao, and a like number of guests, sent this rollicking refrain booming out upon the broad golden surface of the old Potomac yesterday afternoon, as they clashed glasses about the tables at Marshall, where they were assembled to enjoy the first annual shad bake of the Even as they used to sing it in the enjoy the first annual shad bake of the local branch of the society.
